M'MILLAN ROBBERY INQUIRY STOPPED

for Person Who Stole $77,000 in Jewels.

The mystery of the McMillan jewel is concerned, for influence philanthropist, and now employed by to find the thief who stole the $77,000 ing the affections of Mrs. Anna worth of jewels from the summer home at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., of Mrs. James McMillan, widow of the United States Senator from Michigan. The detective was working on the theory that the robbery was an inside Job when orders came to him from Samueis. Cromwell & Stevens, the firm that had

"If the evidence I have was placed mistake had been made,

Denials From Family.

Aschner's statements aroused the ire of John L. Hall, counsel for the McMillan family, according to word from Boston last evening, and Mr. Hall gave out a statement there in which he said that the story coming from New York "is what now appears (, be a baffling mystery."

Mr. Hall also spoke of the meeting between Mrs. Preston Gibson, the granddaughter of Mrs. McMillan, who, was staying at the M. Millan summeer home, and her husband at a Boston hotel two days after the robbery and subsequently to divorce proceedings being instituted. Mr. Hall said that the husband and wife were obliged to confer occasionally in reference to their children.

Says Spangle Means Nothing.

Regarding the spangle which Detective Aschner said was found in the safe of the processing the spangle which Detective Aschner said was found in the safe.

assumed names. He got into their room while they were out, he said, and recognized the defendant's shaving kit and his wife's night dress.

Testifying in behalf of her husband. Mrs, De Medina said that Bell treated his wife cruelly in her presence and that she knew there was no affection betweeks or months before the robbery occurred. The spangle was similar to those found on the trimmings of an evening gown owned by Mrs. Gibson, but it proves nothing and we do not consider it of any significance.

Earlier in the day before the insurance company had told Aschner to quit he had given out a statement denying the foundation of the said, and recognized the defendant's shaving kit and his wife rulely in behalf of her husband. Mrs, De Medina said that Bell treated his wife cruelly in her presence and that she knew there was no affection between the Bells for the defendant to allenate.

The court ordered a sealed verdict.

SENATOR HOLLIS'S WIFE

the had given out a statement denying much that had been said by Mr. Hall. In this statement the detective said:

the detectives off the case may be cor-ject in reference to the Burns detectives, who, as I understand it, were represent-ing the McMillan family, but he has no jurisdiction over me, as I am represent-ing the insurance company and had not stopped a moment on the case until September 25, when he asked me to abandon my investigation, as he inthe detectives off the case may be corit the Hotel Biltmore on September 28.

servants in the McMillan home, on the finding of the spangle from an evening gown in the safe from which the jewels were stolen on the night of August 6 and on results obtained by his men.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis were married in Norwood, Mass., June 14, 1893. Mrs. Hollis's maiden name was Grace Bruerthe house. None of them heard any unusual sounds that night, they said. The jewels were in a safe in a bathroom following Mrs. McMillany's room.

The jewels were in a safe in a bathroom following Mrs. McMillany's room.

MRS. BLIGHTON'S BAIL IS RAISED TO $5,000

Banker Arrested for Interference as Author Is Heard on Fraud Charge.

Bail of $2,500, which has kept Mrs.
Ida Miller Blighton, author, in jail since Sunday on two grand larceny charges, was raised yesterday to $5,000 by Magistrate Krotel in Yorkville court. Assistant District Attorney Buell requested the Magistrate to make the hail $10,000, but after consultation $5,000 was agreed upon. Mrs. Blighton, who is the wife of Frank Blighton, a short story writer, is accused of obtaining money from her friends to invest in real estate and war stocks and never showing any returns.

Mispose of certain other properties to adopted the payment of a reasonable allowance to his wife and children.

HUSBAND SUES SHOW GIRL.

Thomas S. Hauck Asks Divorce
From Betty Randolph, a show girl at the Winter Garden, was served with papers in a divorce action last night on behalf of her husband, Thomas S. Hauck, son of a lumber manufacturer of Bal-

and never showing any returns.

While the case was being heard Detective McConville, who arrested Mrs.

Blighton Saturday at Fiftieth street Blighton Saturday at Fiftieth street and Fifth avenue, arrested a man who said he was Behla Bergen, a banker, living at 226 East Eighteenth street. He was charged with having attempted to persuade Mrs. M. Duncan Gillies, who says she lost $6,000 through her speculations with Mrs. Blighton, to withdraw her charge. Bergen said he was a friend of Mr. Blighton. Miglistrate Krotel discharged Bergen with a trate Krotel discharged Bergen with a severe reprimand, and ordered him to keep away from all the witnesses.

Assistant District Attorney Buell had several complainants on hand vesterseveral complainants on hand vester-day, but only two charges were pre-ferred against Mrs. Blighton. The first was that of Mrs. Myrabelle E. Symonds of 22 West Thirtieth street, wife of an English army Captain. She says she pave $100 to Mrs. Blighton to invest. The other complainant was Roy E. Boynton, clerk at the Hotel Seymour, who charges that he cashed a worthless check for $100 drawn on the Broadway Trust Company for Mrs. Blighton, The other complainants were Mrs. M. Duncan Gillies, who lives at the Hotel Iroquois, in West Forty-fourth street; Mrs. John Goldie, Hotel Berkley; Mrs. Jean Leonard, 36 West Sixtieth street, and J. J. Sterzlinger, 201 Fast Thirtieth street. The examination of Mrs. Blighton was adjourned until to-morrow afternoon.

VALUES EX-WIFE'S LOYE AT $25,000

Detectives Called Off in Hunt C. H. Bell Sues Physician He Named When He Obtained a Divorce.

SPANGLE CLUE ATTACKED SAYS LIFE WAS A HELL

Charles H. Bell, private secretary to tobbery may never be solved as far as the late Joseph Milbank, banker and which was brought to bear resulted in ti Milbank estate at 40 Wall street, the calling off of the last detective yes- appeared before Supreme Court Justice Delehanty yesterday to prosecute a suit Until 3 o'clock in the afternoon Morris for $25,000 damages against Dr. Leo-Aschner, head of a detective agency at poldo De Medina, a physician, now 225 Fifth avenue, was doing his best travelling in South America, for alienat-

Cromwell & Stevens, the firm that had after he had obtained a divorce. Bell insured the jewels for $50,000, and had also sued Billy Sunday, the evangelist, employed his agency, that he cease his investigation. Aschner said to George C. Stevens of the insurance firm: "You're the doctor. If you say stop, then stop it is."

for slander a year ago on the ground of comments supposed to have been made by Sunday in a revival meeting concerning the Bell case, but the action was withdrawn when it was learned that a mistake had been made.

before the District Attorney of Essex county, Massachusetts," Aschner said later, "I am satisfied there would be an arrest inside of forty-eight hours." behalf of her husband. Her testimony show that he is still supporting her and she believes in him, although Bell's counsel alleged that the former Mrs. Bell is now in South America with De Medina, who was last heard from in Valparaiso. The testimony showed that the Bells a statement there in which he said that the story coming from New York "is false in many important particulars, and a possible interpretation of the account would do a cruel injustice to innocent persons." He said that Aschner's methods of investigation were improper and that "every particle of evidence has been turned over to the police and every effort will be made to clear up what now appears to be a baffling mystery."

The testimony showed that the Bells and De Medinas exchanged visits frequently when the former family lived in Mount Vernon and the latter in Philadelphia. Bell said he first became suspicious of the physician when the latter and Mrs. Bell used to sit on the Bell veranda smoking cigarettes and drinking Bell's wine and other liquors while Bell was asleep. Dr. De Medina's counsel contended that the defendant always took along a supply of drink-

Regarding the spangle which Detector the defen int to the Victoria Hotel in Ye Aschner said was found in the safe. New York, and said he found they had from which the jewels were stolen, Chief of Police Sullivan of Manchester said assumed names. He got into their room

SUES FOR A SEPARATION

"Mr. Hall's statement that he called New Hampshire Man Deserted Her and Is Trying to Sell Estate, She Charges.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 5 .- Streeter. tended to telegraph Philip McMillan to this city, attorneys for Mrs. Grace B. come to a meeting in New York city Hollis, have entered in the Superior Hollis, have entered in the Superior at the Hotel Biltmore on September 28.

I refused, however, to divulge any more information. I had already talked with him in Manchester. I went on with my search and am satisfied that I am on the right track. detective says he had built up husband, Henry F. Hollis, junior United his case on examination of the fourteen States Senator for New Hampshire. It servants in the McMillan home, on the has been made returnable on November

The jewels were in a safe in a bathroom adjoining Mrs. McMillan's room.

The insurance firm, which has offices in William street, announced yesterday that it hadn't paid the $50,000 indemnity yet, as instructions were awaited from Lloyd's of London.

MRS. BLIGHTON'S BAIL

Ils practised law and is prominent in bemocratic politics.

Early in June, 1912, to the surprise of Senator Holliss family and friends, the Senator left Mrs. Hollis with her two children, Henry French Hollis, Jr., and Miss Anne Richardson Hollis, and has since lived apart from her. Not even his father, Major Abijah Hollis, who lives in West Concord, nor any member of his family, had any idea as to the cause of his act.

to the cause of his act.

Mrs. Hollia is now with her daughter, Anne, visiting in Princeton, N. J., because of the precarious condition of her daughter's health. Henry F. Hollis, Jr., the son, is a student in Cornell Uni-

Mrs. Hollis's petition alleges, among other things, that her husband recently undertook to sell the interest in his law firm and the professional business con-nected therewith to one or both his former partners. Robert and Alexander Murchie, and disposed of or attempted to dispose of certain other properties to avoid the payment of a reasonable al-lowance to his wife and children.

a divorce action last night on behalf her husband, Thomas S. Hauck, son a lumber manufacturer of Bal-orc. Miss Randolph said that the action grew out of her decision to go on the stage last May, when she joined "The Passing Show of 1915" company.

Hauck is 28 years old, a graduate of Cornell University and a civil engineer employed by the Interborough company. Up to the time the Haucks separated last spring they had been living at 101

WomenEverywhere

Are Reading Our Booklet

"Dollar Diplo-Macy"

BECAUSE it offers an immediate, practical means of meeting the rising cost of living.

It makes no attempt to entertain, but comes right down to the problems that confront women daily-the vital, all-important questions of managing the home and handling the family finances to the best possible advantage. Perhaps it will answer the very question that puzzles YOU to-day! If you have not read it-

It is Yours for the Asking

Depositors' Account Department PRIVATE BANKERS

Herald Square

lhe

Lansdowne"

A hat for a Gentleman

OU'LL see more in one glance at this hat than we could describe in a whole paragraph — that's why you should come to Macy's and see it for yourself.

Men about town wonder how we can give so much hat value for $2.74 "Cash-buying-and-selling" is the answer.

In five new blocks and the season's newest shades: fawn, moss, ash, and the staple browns, oxfords, olive, pearl or

And this is but one good thing of a thousand from our Men's Furnishing Shop on the Main

DANCING WIFE GETS $12 WEEKLY ALIMONY

Sues Husband for Separation, Alleging Cruelty, and Asks for $50 Allowance.

Because his wife insisted on dancing in cabarets instead of staying home to cook his meals, was asserted yesterday a midshipman whose name has not been announced was put on trial to-day west Fifty-eighth street. She is now living at the Hotel Astor. Off the stage of Miss Randolph is Elizabeth Dailey of 2507 Madison street, Baltimore. She is 21 years old. She has been married

New York

One of our best friends and wholesale customers who knows the possibilities of Rogers Peet clothes quite as well as we, recently wound up an ad of his addressed to the "custom tailors' man"

"If you think you're hard to fit, we're here to change your

Judging from his success in fitting men of all builds, we dare say he'll change a good many minds in the next few

Just as we shall, if you decide to see "the fit before you order."

Your Fall overcoat! How will you have it? Full cut or shapely? Regular or raglan? Silk lined to the edge or braid trimmed?

ROGERS PEET COMPANY

Broadway at 13th St

Broadway at 34th St. Fifth Ave. at 41st St.

Four Corners"

AMUSEMENTS.

OLUMBIA BY Burlesque Mat THE STROLLING PLAYERS D WASHINGTON SQ. PLAYERS $1.00

biting her on the arm so severely that she was threatened with blood polsoning, and of knocking out several of her teeth. The defendant told the court that his demestic unhappiness was due entirely to his wife's insistance on cabaret dancing, and said that if she would give up such employment he would take her back.

MIDDY ON TRIAL FOR THEFT. He Paid $14 to Cadet Who Was Robbed, but Said He Was Coerced.

years old. She has been married bout two years.

Wrs. Colt's Suit Dismissed.

The suit brought by Mrs. Elizabeth towns Colt against her husband, Harris

Mrs. Locker told the court that her to the accused man's class respectively. The cade on trial paid the amount to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it, but he never to the one why lost it.

Browning, King & Company

Nothing old-fashioned in our Fall fabrics. They'll wear just as well as they look. New suit models for men of all ages and all tastes: $15 and $20 up to $40. Take a minute to try on the best Overcoat you ever saw. $15 to $50.

Manhattan Shirts, Scarfs and Gloves in choice designs.

Everything for boys as for men.

> Be assured in advance of Complete Satisfaction.

Broadway at 32d St. Cooper Square at 4th St. Manhattan

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.

The Corraine Fifth Ave. at 45thSt.

Apartments and Rooms with Bath,

Unfurnished & Furnished, by the Year, Season or Transiently. GEORGE C. HOWE, Prest.

GEORGE ORVIS, Treas. Also EQUINOX HOUSE, Manchester

DINE TODAY AT THE Craftsman Restaurant

Top floor of THE CRAFTSMAN BUILD-NG affording to visitors an extensive view of our illuminated city.

Club Afternoon Tea35 & .50 Dinner, from 6 to 9 $1.00

Tables Reserved. Tel. Murray Hill 607: CRAFTSMAN BUILDING, 6 East 30th Street, New York, N. Y. Gustav Stickley, The Craftsman, Inc.

Luchow's 14th Street, near Fourth Avenue

Silhouette Room, Hotel Martinique "THE CUT-UPS" A Musical Entertainment During Dinner and Supper.

Prince George Hotel Fifth Ave. and 28th St. pecial rates to permanent guests

STRAND Cafeteria, Dancing, Europe's Orch.
ROOF Lameh 11:30 AM to 2 PM To-night
GARDEN Dancing 8 PM to 4 PM. CakeWalk Contest.
B'y & 47th | Popular Prices, No Tipping. HOTEL ALBERT 11th 8t. & Univ. P. Rates 81 up. Excellent restaurant and cafe, moderate prices. Special rates for permanent guests. Modern, fireproof.

1,807,632,726 HAD RIDES. City Railway Traffic Yielded $93. 644,428 in Year.

The sult brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Bowne Colt against her husband, Harris D. Colt. a lawyer, to compel him to account for moneys paid to her mother as her share of a trust fund left by Walter Bowne, Mrs. Colt's grandfather, was dismissed yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Newburger, who held that there was no evidence that Colt acted as his wife's agent.

Yellow Fever in Panama.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sus.

PANAMA, Oct. 5.—A case of yellow fever has been discovered in quarantine and no infection is feared.

Justice Pendleton granted only $12 a week.

Mrs. Locker told the court that her husband threw her across a bed four days after their marriage on February 24 last, and the following day tried to strangle her. She said that later he door early one morning, saying that he was about to commit suicide. Mrs. Locker went to the bathoom and found her husband in a tubful of water, but his nose was out and she found that he was fooling to a report made by the Public Service Commission yesterday. Detailed figures follow:

Mrs. Locker went to the one who lost it, but he never hadmitted taking the money, asserting that he was coerced into paying it.

No Appeal in Navy Hazing Cases.

Nov Appeal in Navy Hazing Cases.

Street railway traffic brought

LAST IN THE FIELD-BUT BEST

Wanamaker Neverbreak Wardrobe Trunk, $15

A bettered, more-for-your-money trunk — stronger, more artistic, with added improvements and conveniences—specially made for the Wanamaker Stores-first factory shipment now ready for inspection.

Specifications of the Wanamaker Trunk

Corrugated fibre covering over 3-ply hard-wood veneer, fibre bound and securely riveted by hand. Fixtures of cold rolled steel, heavily brass plated. Two tension bolts, two dowels, and self-locking Excelsior lock. High grade linings—boudoir patterns for women, plain patterns for men. One roomy top drawer with hat tapes and all partitions, removable; two additional deep drawers, equipped with the new tional deep drawers, equipped with the new patent removable swing garment rack with 5-ply veneer hangings.

Big enough (40 x 14 x 22½ inches) to hold everything the average traveler wishes; small enough to be compact and cozy and not in the way even in small rooms.

No excess baggage to pay; no extra transfer charges—you just can't pack this trunk to exceed the free baggage limit, and it can be carried on any cab or taxi.

Guaranteed for Five Years

This trunk has been on the market for some months. It has passed the experimental stage. We were unwilling to put it into our stocks before it had proved itself out and until certain improvements should be made. These improvements are now incorporated in the special Wanamaker Neverbreak trunk, and we offer it to the public with full confidence that it will give continued satisfaction.

WANAMAKER JOHN

WM. GILLETTE

LYCEUM West 45th St. Evs. 8:15 Mats. To-mor w&Sat. 2:15

HARRIS WEST 42d ST Eves, at 8:15, Mats To-day (Pop.) & Sat. at 2:1, Extra Matinee Columbus Day, Oct. 12.

Rolling Stones

BELASCO West 44th St. Evs. 8:30.
"BULLY GOOD FUN."—Eve Mail.

THE BOOMERANG

REPUBLIC West 42d St. Eves. at 8.20 Mats. To-day Sat. & Oct. 12th. with JOHN

COMMON CLAY MASON and JANE COWL

SEATS SELLING 8 WEEKS AHEAD.

Broadway at Ninth, New York

SDAY SOUSA and His ASTOR Byway 45th St. Bryant 287.
Eys. 20 Mats. Wed & Sat. 2:20.
Special Mat. Columbus Day, Oct. 12.
MAT. TODAY BEST $1.00 & $1.50 65°COHAN'S GREAT AMERICAN FARCE FIVE American LAUGHS.

CANDLER W. 42 ST. Evs. 8:15 Sharp MAT. TODAY SEATS $1.00 & $1.50 "THE HOUSE Best Dramatic Offering OFGLASS" New York Has Seen.

with MARY RYAN ORCHESTRA SEATS $1.50 and $2.00 500 Good FIRST BALC. 50c, 75c, $1.

THE SEASON'S MUSICAL HIT. The Girl Who Smiles CARNEGIE HALL

OCTOBER 7, 8, 9. (TWICE DAILY). Afternoons at 3; Evenings at 9. A FASHION EXTRAVAGANZA

Seats, 50c, $1.00, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 On sale at Carnegie Hall, Tyson Bride's and offices of the New

Eight Friday Afts. Sixteen Sunday Afts. Subscriptions Si Mischa Filman Frieda Hempel Harold Bauer Louise Homer Percy Grainker Mr. Saslavsky Merle Alcock Subscriptions now er Schumann-Hein er Pablo Casals ger Julia Culp y George Barrere John Powell ow at Room1202 Acolianiti

The Century PARK W NED WAYBURNS TOWN TOPICS

CORT THE PRINCESS PAT Fleaner Henry Blossom-Victor Herbert Comie LEXINGTON Sist & Lex. Av. Evs. 25e to $1. Present "UNDER COVER" STANDARD Curtain 2 & S. Evs. 25c to $1. Mat. To morrow, 25c & 50c.

Presents THE SONG OF SONGS" YORK 116thSt. nr. LenexAv. Phope 1354 Morn. Shubert MME.PETROVA IN THE

NEW YORK'S LEADING THEATRES AND SUCCESSES. EMPIRE B way and 40th St. Evs. 8.15. HOLBROON BILLIAM S. CO-day & Sci.
HOLBROON BILLIAM S. C. MOLO(
IN THE GREAT WAR PLAY

After the Play Visit Danse de Fottes

The Meeting Place of the Work

NEW MERCHELL FROM FROLIG AND A

MIDNICHT FROLIG ADDRESS MR. CYRIL MAUDE " GRUMPY INSIS NEXT MON.,OCT.11 SEATS

GEO. COHAN'S B'way, 4:Bl St. Eve S. M. COHAN'S Mats. To-day (Pop.) A POPULAR PRICE MAT. 10-DAY CHARLES DILLINGHAM PRESEN FIRST SHERLOCK HOLMES ELSIE JANIS EXTRA Matinee Columbus Day, Oct. 12.

MARIE | In The Double Comedy Bill
J. M. BARRIE'S

TEMPEST | and THE DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE.

OCTOBER ISTH. SEATS OCTOBER 14.

Ethel Barrymore | EmmaMcChesney&Co." In a Little Comedy MISS INFORMATION

MAT. TO-DAY :: ... $1.00 & $1.50 "YOUNG AMERICA" FIRST

D. W. GRIFFITH'S

CANDLER W. 42d St. Evs. 8 15 sh MAT.TO-DAY :: $1.00 & $1.50 "THE HOUSE A BIGGER SUCCESS

OF GLASS" ON TRIAL AND THE GREAT ALL AMERICAN ORCHESTRA SEATS $1.50 and $2.00 500 Seats FIRST BALC. 50c, 75c, $1

GLOBE B Way & 46th St. Eves. 8:15 PARK Cols. Circle & 59th. Phone 9500 Colombia Mats. To-day, 25c to $1. Even Selection MAY IRWIN "33 WASHING TON SOLARE MONTGOMERY & STONE SHIP

main 4Acts THE BARGAIN

39th ST. THEY NEXT SAT. EVE. THE COMMON THE Unchastened Woman

CASINO B'way & 30th St. Evs. at Mats. To-day, Sat & Oct

and Best Singing Company on

PLAYHOUSE 48th. E. of B'way Ex Matinees To-day & S MATINEE TO-DAY

SHUBERT Thea Math. W ... B.W.

WILLIAM HODGE

Atop the 44th St Thea X Nightly at 10 30 and ICE Champion Ice Skater & PALACE ern Dances, Supper & December & St. At a Company of the Dansant every Wed & Sat At a Geg. Sat. Dinner 6 to 9 (No. 4 dm Ch.

44th St. Thea. fust | 1.481 William 25c. to all parts of the house 25c.

GERMAN BATTLEFIELDS

THE BLUE PARADISE

GRACE GEORGE

THE NEW YORK IDEA

WINTER GARDEN SEATS COMEDY 41st, E. of To-Night BOOTH Mis To-day, Sat & Oct. 12th 2

E. H. SOTHERN

Alfred Sutro's THE TWO VIRTUES The best work he has ever done. Sothern's latest work is his best JOURNAL OF COMMERCE: The eleverest comedy of the season WORLD:
A new revelation of E. H. Sothers EVENING SUN:
"Has the effervescence and sparkle EVENING TELEGRAM:
To sit through this play is to he To sit through yest kind of a time JOURNAL:

"Beyond question the most distinguish cure on the American stage,"
"Mr. Sothern's perfection of method i ource of rare satisfaction. It is a genu because is see him again in a modern role 1.50 MATINEE TO-DAY AT 2:30 LYRIC 42d. W. of B way. Eys. 8 THE LATEST MUSICAL TRIUMPH TWO IS COMPANY

MANHATTAN OPERA HOUSE, EX MATINEE TO-DAY, 25c to $1.00. STOLEN ORDERS

PALACE Son Hall, Elizabeth M. Brway, 47 ST, and T. Roy Barnes Dally Mt 25 to $1.14 Bessie Crawford. GOLONIAL Chip & Marble, Eddie Leonard & Co., Henry Lewis, Watson Ststers.ors.

IRVING PL. THEATRE Every Eve. DAS WEITE LAND (SCHNITZLER)

Next Week, Marie Doro in "The White Pearl"

Produced under the superficient of Griffith-Ince-Sennett Raymond Hitchcock in "States Mars"
"Old Heddelberg," with Dorothy Cish
Eddie Foy in "A Payerile is Eddie Foy in "A Payerile is

KNICKERBOCKER

